

Saddleworth White Rose Society

In the County of York

Although Saddleworth is a part of the Oldham Metropolitan Borough and in fact makes up 53% of the Borough, it is still in the County of York

Since the introduction of the Postcode System, many of us have chosen to use our true address:

NAME
ROAD
VILLAGE
SADDLEWORTH
YORKSHIRE, POSTCODE

The postcode must of course be used on all mail, but we have found that the utility companies, banks, credit card companies building societies, insurance companies and many others are quite happy to alter their computer software to the true address, particularly if a hint is given that custom may be withdrawn if this request is not complied with. The choice is yours.

This is only a small gesture, but it is a big step in helping to preserve the separate identity of Saddleworth and its historic place in the County of York.

I/We wish to become a member of Saddleworth White Rose Society and enclose the fee of £3.00p (individual) or £5.00p (family)
